Ultimate PHP Board

Hits: 106,216

Description: Ultimate PHP Board is a full featured discussion board/forum that uses our in-house produced text database system. We aim to offer the same features as any of the large SQL based forums but without ANY of the SQL mess and to do it FAST. All of our code is written to maximize speed in a textdb environment. UPB is administered completely online using an easy to use control panel; setup in minutes; easy upgrades; very active and friendly development team that helps you out with any problem you have.

UPB is the absolute best textdb based forum ever created! It is so easy to customize, hack and mess with, and the creators even condone hacking it! It is tons of fun to make it do exactly what you want, and it doesn't require SQL!!! I give UPB an extatic thumbs up!

Excellent flat file system for the novice user with no SQL experience, Feb

Ultimate power board is undoubtedly one of the best options if you want to run a forum/message board, but do not have or want to use SQL. It comes packed with many of the standard features of the other boards and has a very active support forum. These guys take pride in their work and support is top notch. TRY IT OUT.
