Excellent Package, Jul 7th, 2004

In the last 6 months we've had 150+ Autosites web sites started. About 2 dozen now "live". I've been amazed at how little technical support I've had to provide. The sites which some of our clients have built are very impressive -- really "professional-quality."

The admin's documentation is very thorough and I've found their support to be very responsive when I've run into a question I needed help with.

Great Program, Aug 11th, 2004

If you want a program that allows your clients ease of use and customization, this is the script to get! While lacking in the documentation areas, this company makes up for it in 1st class customer service and a program that does exactly what it states it will do (and a little more). Maintenance is a breeze.
