HiAgents

Hits: 2,845

Description: HiAgents is a complete searchable property database solution for Estate Agent / Realtor's websites which requires no native database support on the host server. Online property portfolios can be easily managed by an individual without technical expertise, with separate areas for properties for sale, and properties for rent / lease. Every back-end requirement an Estate Agent or Realtor might have is catered for. Includes multiple image support, thumbnails and enlargements, auto map link to mapquest and streetmap.co.uk, property specific feedback forms, tenancy schedules forms etc. Pro-quality front end easily adaptable using HTML templates. Same day electronic delivery.
