Description: VisualDrive is a web-based file storage application that allows users to store and share files securely, quickly and simultaneously via the web. Using VisualDrive, companies can provide secure, shared access to critical files and documents for their employees, customers and partners anytime, anywhere. VisualDrive makes project management and collaboration easier and quicker, saving time and money. VisualDrive enables affordable file and document management over the Internet, providing a platform-independent application that works with all commonly used Web servers and browsers. VisualDrive is a front-end application that runs entirely on the server and does not require any client side software or configurations.
