Description: PictureShow is a fully-animated image display applet. An unlimited number of images are displayed one at a time, with fade, slide and zoom animation effects as images enter and exit. Each image can link to a separate URL. Images can be displayed in numeric order or using intelligent randomization, and slide & zoom or fade effects can be switched off if required. PictureShow supports MP3 sound effects for click and release events, and its background can be transparent in compatible browsers.
