BUGS and NO SUPPORT!!!, Nov 30th, 2006

Reviewed By: svenny

The script I purchased had bugs and I couldn't get the developer to respond out of ten emails other than one time where he wanted my ftp and admin login information even though I pointed out exactly where in the code the bug was. I'm not a coder but the bugs were suspicious enough to question his tactics (will make changes for $) and I was able fix them. He also never responded to queries about turning off unwanted features and some other things. Bugs and zero support warrants a 1/2 star from me

After paying for this software, I contacted this company twice by email, and once by phone and they never responded. They sent me a script that doesn't work, and they offer no support. This company is a scam.
