Pretty good but with a few flaws, Jul 30th, 2005

this is a very nice script for link management and indexing.
but if they could sort out the little lack of certain features it would be really nice.

if they could add SE friendly urls, Titles on the pages to name a few it would make an excellent addition.

What a Joke!, Oct 20th, 2006

The script kept returning error messages. Not sure why. I contacted Comdev's technical support and discovered they were based somewhere in Asia. I had a hard time understanding their broken English. They tried very hard to help me but unfortunately it's not going anywhere. Poor coding + bad communication = worst experience.
