Nakul Goyal is a thief and an imposter.

He stole my meta-tags in SEO. I have screen shots from 3 1/2 years ago through the way-back site that shows when he changed his site and my site as it was years ago. He only put his name to replace mine.

When checking my positions for "seo expert", my exact meta description was showing in Google under his name after my site was bumped down in the SERPS. A misspelled word in the meta description proves he took MY description. What a PROFESSIONAL SEO, huh?
