DON'T DO IT! SUPPORTLESS!, Jan 28th, 2005

Reviewed By: tonedoggydogg

I purchased this Dec 2004 and it's been almost a month and I have not heard a single response from anyone in support after emails BEGGING for help?

The code uses riddles and obscure comments and is NOT template based like they say it is. Yes, you can change colors, but inserting a single link or button is like chinese math!

A great product is totally useless w/o support. What a shame.
