Description: This applet writes any text like a blackmail-letter that consists of letters cut out from a newspaper. You can specify the text, the width and height of the applet and the delay after each letter. In future versions I might add additional parameters. To remove the link to my site, one as to purchase a license. Maybe I will install a tool on my website that will allow you the send e-mails that look like blackmail - check out my website in 1 or 2 weeks!
