I have been so pleased with the service and product of this company. I highly recommend PHP Pro Bid Auction Script Software to everyone wanting to start their own auction. The service has been wonderful. They are very professional, understanding and extremely quick to respond to my e-mails. David has been so helpful and patient with me and my request. I looked at three other Auction Programs before deciding on PHP Pro Bid. I am most certain that I chose the correct one. Even a friend of mine that runs a large online auction has been very impressed with the service PHP Pro Bid has given me. Plus he could not believe that I paid less than half of the amount he paid for less service support and site functions. I just bought my second PHP Pro Bid auction script for my second auction site. GREAT JOB and SERVICE PHP PRO BID.

We have used PHPProbid auction software since December 2004. It's first class, but more than that the back-up customer service is also unmatched. They keep improving the software! Just when you think it can't get any better they come up with something new and even more innovative. Superb product, marvellous customer services, incredible development team.

We recently switched to PHP Probid, giving up a hugely expensive rival that was nowhere near as good.

I truly cannot stress enough how good this package is. I would not hesitate in the slightest to recommend this product.

The support is excellent. The Probid is extremely helpful and Mods for this package are in abundance, Many of them free.

No I don't work for Probid lol. I am just that impressed with it :)

Take care!

What a superb script great company brilliant support. I really can't recommend this enough. I was stung like many others by Bidflux after realising I wasn't going to get a penny back from bidflux. I emailed these guy's and asked lots of questions. I checked out other sites using this software then went away for a think. I purchased the software and it installed so smoothly straight from the box I added my SSL cert changed the logo and presto I have a fully functional auction site without even getting my hands dirty, not one line of code to edit just install and go.

I have spent a lot of time and money on auction scripts believe me and this is the best there is.

I have been using PPB for a year now and by all accounts, I had a lucky escape... PPB was the first script I came across, so I haven't had the nightmare of paying for other scripts and finding out they're pants!

The suport is superb, the software has improved in leaps and bounds - so much so, it is virtually unrecognisable from when I first purchased it - but it hasn't cost any more for the updates or support...

I can't praise this program enough!

The script is fantastic and as close to plug & go as you can possibly get. On top of that though is the support which is nothing short of superb. I'm delighted I found it.

This software, for the price, free upgrade and support has got to be the best on the market.

Strong community support coupled with awesome assistance from the probid team ensures you'll have no problems with this s/w.

Our Company bought the Phpauction XL script for about 900 Euros, we where very unsatisfied about it (see our review). Then we switched to PHP Probid! We have to say that this is a very professional script with a VERY good customer support! Trouble Tickets are normaly answered in less than 30 minutes. There is a very good community with a lot of additional Modifications (a lot of them are for free)! We would buy this script again!

PhpProbid is an excellent bit of script. I did have a small gripe, and was a bit too quick to leave a review that, whilst not bad, was actually not correct. (sincerest appologies) The guys picked up on this and were rightly concerned, very polite and helpful at the same time. Tip top service. As all the other reviewers here have said, GREAT support. One of my emails was answered in about 3 mins!! Keep it up guys.

PHPProBid is a world class product that we chose to base our auction site <http://www.ipodnanny.com> on, after a lot of market research and review of competing products. The team at PHPProBid exemplified by David give exceptional service and nothing is too much to ask - not that the product requires a lot of support.

The product is a highly stable business centric software which is easy to administer using the excellent Admin interface with good navigation cues. I rate this product highly.

I did a bit of research for my site and found a few auction packages that had 'the look'. However, this one stood out from the crowd on the reviews within this site with regards to support. Being close to my heart, I took the plunge. The software was very easy to install although it did not work right away. However as one of the reviewers said, the support email took a few minutes and each time, I was back on track. Within 24 hours the site is almost ready to go, amazing!!

php Pro Bid is hand down the best deal out there. I did a lot of research before buying and was initially skeptical because the price was so low compared to other software with comperable features. However, the reviews I read won me over and I tried it. Glad I did. Support is EXCELLENT with quick and helpful replies. Install was a breeze and customization was doable even for a luddite like me. HIGHLY RECOMMENDED!
