Description: Visitors: Visitors can create either hard-copy or digital coupons, which can then be emailed to friends.

Affiliate module - Offer affiliate coupon/links on your site by adding our affiliate module to your couponZONE product. Visitors will be able to view local and affiliate coupons all from the same site.

Wireless module - Want to offer coupons to wireless devices such as PDAs and cellular phones with web browser capabilities? couponZONE's wireless module has a special 'Walk-in' code feature that allows visitors to browse coupons on their wireless device and redeem the coupons at participating merchants. Once a coupon has been selected on the wireless device, the visitor also has the option of receiving driving directions or direct dialing the merchant.

This product is sold for ~$300USD as an out-of-the box solution. It's not. There are empty docs folders, an incomplete sample application, and no guidance whatsoever. Contacting support results in no response. After a lot of digging, it turns out that support is a paid subscription available at time of purchase - but it's not and there's no other indication how to buy support. The software works, but takes a lot more expertise than advertised.
