Count170

Hits: 3,573

Description: Count170 is a web counter that will keep track of all your visitors in one text file and display the results in a nice small area on a web page. Also displays the estimated amount of time that has passed from visitor to visitor and how many people are viewing the site at the current time. It comes with several options, Text only or icons for numbers and determine if it should be a hit or a visit counter.
