Misleading Listing, Feb 20th, 2005

Reviewed By: pccreative.com

This is not freeware. Its a listing for a full version product. But the only one available for free is the demo, which limits you to five listings. Perhaps it should be removed until they list the actual freeware product, not the bait and switch. The other issue is that the headers and categories seem to be in some foreign language. What's that about?

Very nice script, Jul 11th, 2005
