EZHomepagePro

Hits: 6,199

Description: This is a more robust version of EZHomepageBasic with many new features. The admin section has been completely revamped and now has EZNewsletter built in. It Utilizes EZGallery with all the features it comes with. It now has a functional Calendar for each user as well as a private messaging system. Admin has the option to allow users to upload files to their personal folders. Users can now email each other if the user allows it. There are three styles to choose from and Admin can create more from the admin section. This script is totally installable from the browser and you can choose from an Access 2000 or MSSQL databases. Requires ASPUpload and AspJpeg for the upload and Gallery features.
