I have recently purchased this script but did not realize that it was written for USA Customers, with USA States and other parochial information. I contacted Softbiz scripts and they edited the software to suit the Australian Market. I was impressed with their professionalism and willingness to meet our needs at no additional cost. I have no hesitation in recommending softbiz scripts.com

A fantastic script, easy to edit and modify with loads of features and options. The experience with softbizscripts and their continued support has been invaluable. Whenever I call they are there usually well before 12 hours is up. More internet companies should operate like this. Swiftly with no fuss and obvious programming knowledge to match any other company. Thanks SoftBizScripts. All the best for the future. S Hawkins. <http://cartouche-jobz.co.uk>
