Description: RSStatic lite is perhaps the internet's most popular RSS syndication software of it's kind. RSStatic optimizes RSS aggregation and contributes to your search optimization efforts. RSStatic provides the following features:

Unlimited amount of added content to your site
Everytime a feed updates, your site will have new content added.

Maintenance free
Simply set it up and it will continue to expand your site.

Search Engine Friendly URLs
By using the title name of each article in the filename, you instantly create keyword rich URLs.

Built Using PHP
PHP is supported by most host and is available as a free download for those who don't currently have it installed.

No Database Needed
Each page is generated as it comes into the system keeping you from having to worry about a database installation.

This script is very easy to use and from the sites I viewed it looks easy to implement as well. The possibilities of modifications is rather exciting as well. The script is simple yet effective and loads the feeds very quickly. I give this script two big thumbs up.
