Let Down..., Feb 15th, 2006

While this software is well designed for what it DOES offer, it is what it doesn't offer that is dissapointing and makes it not worth spending money on. Like, you can not use the gift certificates although it clearly states it offers gift certificates. There is no way to collect money for them if you create them. Coupons do not have a per customer option (this is basic). Although helpful, the company charges to add features even free carts have. There is more but I have run out of review room.

I really like this software. It is very flexible and I have found that it performs almost every function I need for day to day maintenance tasks.

I have also noticed that updates and new feature are being added very frequently, sometimes twice a month!

I wouldn't hesitate to recommend ViArt Shop to anyone: the support is fast and very helpful, the flexibility of the desing is great and the speed at which it runs compared to Zen Cart (which I used previously) is astounding.

Great functionality. Seems to do everything I need for a shopping site selling downloadable documents... New features seem to be added almost weekly! Well worth a try.

The good: Relatively inexpensive; nice CMS feature really flexible and customizable; great list of add-ons:newsleeters,etc; fast support;

The bad: Doesn't include support for Chinise language,however they offer the service for implementing it;

The bottom line: Viart Shop is a great deal for the money, probably the best I've seen so far.

Professional templates right out of the box, many features not found in other products, great price. But my favourite part of this whole experience has been the excellent support I have received from the team... custom design at a very reasonable cost, putting up with my limitless requests, Answering my questions. Everything was done in a timely and very respectful manner!! I have been telling everyone about the product and the team! Thanks again

Great shopping cart for a business, Mar 26th, 2008

Personally I was greatly amused the way this soft works. It was easy to install and comprehend. The number of functions is simply impressive. But if something is lacked, the prog can be customized for a reasonable price.

By the way the program has great support. They answered my e-mail just in a few hours and made the customizing in another two days.

I have regrets of purchasing it.
