CubeEye

Hits: 890

Description: CubeEye is an advanced 2-in-1 alarm and desktop-toy (screen-mate) solution based on the famous Chinese Book of Changes. Our solution provides you with a possibility to have a really "living" forecaster on your desktop. And what do you say if this screen-mate will be a famous model or singer?

Besides, CubeEye application also provides you with the possibility to create and use your own skins, and now your baby or darling can be always with you no matter where you are. And this is not all!

With our alarming system you can create alarms that are playing any music you wish. No more of boring and primitive alarm sounds. You want to be noticed about something by the message from your darling or favourite actress living on your desktop by the song or music you like? With CubeEye you will never miss an important meeting or date.

And please, do not forget to visit our site to find more of CubeEye skins.
