Nice Script, Aug 29th, 2005

The script itself is excellent with ease of use and nice features and a good price. However I think the admin interface could use a bit of a improvement. Another small complaint is that the order is manually validated which took 10 hours for me.

Kisses is nice feature, May 24th, 2006

I would like the admin panel to have the statistics option that would be more convenient to manage traffic details. The list of virtual kisses and the possibility to send immediate reply looks user friendly and very handy feature.
