BEWARE, Script does not work with zero support, Apr 18th, 2006

I purchased this script and received NO SUPPORT at all. The company waited for my funds to clear then they emailed me a zipped file. After this, I was left alone.

There are no instructions on how to install the script, I am still trying to figure out how to install this script.

I kept emailing the company but received no responses. $400 down the drain.

I have had no problems with the script, installation or support from Vastel. I paid, got a phone call to confirm, got my script with instructions and also got more or less 24hr support since. If you call them or email you will receive support, I have no doubt, plus they are very kind in what they will do for you and very helpful.

I purchased Buddy Zone 3 months ago and am extremely impressed with:

1. The quality of the well written code (extremely easy to read, use and change).
2. The helpful (and FREE) install of the script.
3. The instant and endless help thru Chat and Email.

I give it 2 thumbs up!
