I bought and downloaded this script for a client, as it states that the code is not encrypted, so modifications can be made easily... not so. The code is confusing & also seems to be written by 2 people - one who knows what they're doing and the other who either doesn't, or is plain lazy! i.e. tags like rather than etc. Not XHTML compliant and throws up loads of errors. Also the support is virtually non-existent, unless you have banal questions. I've waited over a month for a reply!

Buy this one first, you won't be sorry., Jan 17th, 2007

6 minutes from the time I downloaded it till it was running live on the site. Simple as 1-2-3 installation, create MySQL db, upload script files, run admin and you're up and running. Very flexible site with a lot of options and author has left the header and footer clean of junk so you can put your own touches on the site. Typical of MySQL driven sites, this one has quick response time. A real bargain at this price.
