Installs no probs, after the installation it tells you to go the the admin folder to execute, there is no admin folder. Also there is no key in your licence console like it says, and there is no customer support after you pay. I found more bad experiences in google about Alstrasoft. I should have googled these backyarders first!

Webhost script good, poor zend optimizer, Dec 20th, 2005

The above review was correct, however, I got it to work after they did not encrypt the files with Zend. They claimed it was a host issue and it was not after I proved to them they was wrong. It works just fine now, but really could have been written better. It only worked after Zend was not used.

I agree, their support is very, very, very poor. They do have interesting scripts, but, not out of the box as they claim in most cases.
