UserLOGIK QuickPacks (featuring the eActivated Portal Framework)

Hits: 933

Description: Combining powerful CRM, Call Center and Opportunity Management in one package gives your business the flexibility to manage relationships you have now, and relationships you may have tomorrow. It's as easy to use as CommonLOGIK, which it also requires. Full company management of accounts, ratings & comments for all content types, notifications, and polling provide an introductory "people and situations" management system for companies in any line of business. In addition, we provide currency and region management for extending the system around your company, and across the world.
