We chose 'Creadirectory' after a long and profound search over the net for a decent booking application. From the start, 'Creadirectory' met with all our expectations of this kind of application, regarding both functionality and friendliness. Installation and customization were very easy and intuitive, yet powerful. We could say a lot more about 'Creadirectory', nevertheless, you may find the most valuable quality of this product to be the technical support. Highly Recommended!

Creascripts commitment to customer service is refreshing in an industry in which, too often, it is hard to make contact with the people behind the computers. I was truly impressed by Creascripts' prompt and attentive responses to my questions and concerns. They produced a user-friendly, easy-to-use program that will make the administration of our directory run much more smoothly in the months to come.
