I paid for Omnistar Mailer and then found that it was impossible to import emails from a list. I tried many times following their instructions. I asked for help. They called me at 2am so those who answered the phone did not wake me. I explained many times that I am in the Philippines and therefore please call when they arrive in the office in the morning so it would be late evening my time. Every time I emailed I got 2 replies saying they need to call me first. Wasted money. I now use PHPList.
