Description: The easiest way to pull news headlines for just about anything at all into your website. NewsPuller currently covers topics such as TopStories, World News, Music News, Business News, Entertainment News, Health, Music, Politics, Science, Sports, and Technology. You can now easily carry just the topics that fit your site with our easy to install and use news modules. Each topic comes with 2 seperate scripts to make sure you get the info displayed the way YOU want it. One script build static html pages while the other allows fully dynamic views. Each script uses external html templates that allow full customization to suit your site.
