I bought this product for a very small price but was able to do A LOT. This systems allows complete customization of the look and feel allowing a non developer to use this easily.

The support is superb and you should take a look at how quickly they respond on the forums.

Not many systems are available in several languages, this one does.

THank you

I've seen many dating scripts and they all contains lots of stuff that sometimes is just too much and forget about the REAL flexibility.

Well this one is SO flexible that if you see their customer's site, you wouldnt know what software made it.

The pricing is definitely nice and you wont find anything of high quility for this price.

Great support, talked to the developer directly.

I am extremely impressed with this product. After abandoning my first choice system after several hours just trying to install it with no success, I was so happy when vldPersonals support guys offered to install their system for me at no charge. Their support is excellent - very responsive day and night and weekends. The product itself has loads of features too. I now wonder why they weren't my first choice to begin with. I am happy that this is the system I ended up with.

I have purchased some dating scripts before, and believe me I think I have search them all and try what I thought were the best.

I been thru webdate, edating & dolphin.

None of them came close to the Vld Personals. The best feature is the support, most question get answered with an hour (I didn't believe it at first. Check their support forum, check the time it takes to reply, you'll see). Non dating features are not available, but on the works, I'll be there to enjoy them.

You will love it!

I'm very unhappy and regret purchasing this software. It is full of bugs, underdeveloped, and the documentation consists of 10 skimpy pages that leave the non-expert user in the dark. This is a one-man operation, so if you're planning on running a professional site, go with a real company that actually has a staff. I found Vlad to be unhelpful, and even rude sometimes. This is a new product that hasn't been around long, and it really shows. Stay away.

I've been using this product for about 8 months. An already good product is frequently upgraded, Vlad takes note of users suggestions, and provides top rate support both by email and on the site's forum. The software is extremely flexible and so far has been bug free, as Vlad seems to take a great deal of care over development. Highly recommended for anyone wanting to run a trouble free personals site.

I cannot find in portofolio any site with at list a decent traffic. I see only sites with many register member but only one or so online. You cannot make any idea of script performance. Also, benchmarking, profiling, load test are undocumented (I think inexistent too). Maybe would not hurt to document business logic so buyer can get an informed choice. No word about database schema or any kind of optimization. Also no free version available even one with very few features so buyers can evaluate.

You should take into consideration your programming skills if you want to make changes or customize. From reading the other reviews, I think those who said it was buggy, are not aware of the features and how they work. A quick shout at support will put you on the right path.

All in all, I can't wait till I get my site up and running. It is a winner - db3204 do not buy this script if you want to use it with vbulletin or any other forum. it does not work the way the author claims. it is not "integrated" as the usergroups are not shared properly, permissions are not shared, profiles and private messages are not integrated, and there are many more issues. if you buy this and think its going to work with your forums out of the box your wrong, it will take A LOT OF WORK to make it truely intrgrated like the authors claim it is when you install it.

I am a software programmer myself, and normally I do my own scripting when I need anything. When I tried the demo version of Vldpersonal, I was sold at the moment. 99.95 dollars for the software, + another 99.95 for the Commercial Edition Upgrade seem to be a lot of money, but for the facilities and for the support you get, I would say it's multiple times worth it.

Outstanding support & rich extension module is all what you need to start your very own dating site.
