BAC Calculator from AODWiki

Hits: 1,045

Description: Type in the number of drinks, the amount of time, and your weight in pounds, and this calculator will estimate the resulting BAC. While there are other BAC Calculators out there, this is unique in that it comes from AODWiki.org, the only open source for alcohol and other drug prevention information.

Feel free to use this script in accordance with AODWiki copyrights, including maintaining it within the public domain, offering access free of charge, and referencing AODWiki.org as the source.
