Great idea, horrible delivery and support, Jul 12th, 2006

One of the highest priced RSS content systems online, looked great! Setup went fine, after finding out it can only do stock Yahoo feeds, but no other rss and no custom yahoo feeds, emailed and called for help, no response, then while changing number of articles to display in admin area, entire package crashed with MySQL error. No idea who actually wrote or supports software as many sites sell the same package. Horribly disappointed and misleading.

I could not really believe my eyes when I made a transition from my current CMS to article manager pro software. I have been running a media press sites for sometime and never though of making money from my site but after reading the product info about the adsense optimization, I signup for a google adsense account and decided to give it a run. I tracked my adsesne revenues every day and 1 month later, i was earning more than $3500+ on my site with about 10,000 page views per month
