Very Good Script, Nov 14th, 2006

This script is well made; I bought as integration of another script. It is designed with many options and features; the price is quite cheap.

As stand alone script, I tried it, and worked fine; as script integrated in my community script, some bugs were promptly fixed with their excellent support within hours.

A FANTASTIC SCRIPT, Jan 9th, 2007

After searching for many months and trying all sorts of chat scripts, this beats them all. excellent customer service, ease of installation yet they offer installation. a dream come true for someone who wants to integrate this script with there site at a very reasonable cost.

Don't bother buying from these guys if you actually want to use your software. I made a purchase through PayPal and have been waiting since for my download, they have not responded to any of my queries as to when I can expect my software.
