WOW, is all I can say. This script packs everything you will ever need and more. We are very surprised at what we have recieved for the money. The layout alone is as simple as it gets. There is so many features to see and do. The support is one of the best. We love it!!!!

Horrible Code - Stay away, Jul 13th, 2006

The developer obviously did not code any of these lousy scripts and together they are a pile of garbage. The features do not integrate together and it looks, feels and acts like it is a bunch of scripts ripped off from other sources. There is also a reason they don't post information about upgrades or bug fixes because you can expect to be screwed like I was. Look around more and you'll find better scripts from more reliable sources.

Buyer Beware!
