TraceSearch - SERP tool for webmasters Hits: 1,258 and SEO prof

Description: TraceSearch is free tool that helps web-masters and SEO specialists trace site position in leading world, Russian and Ukrainian search engines: Google, MSN Search, Yahoo!, Yandex, Rambler, Meta, BigMir.

It will show your site(s) position in each of them on selected keywords/keyphrases; also you can schedule delivery of this reports daily, weekly or monthly to your email address, that should save you tons of time.

Also system reports your site PR and Yandex CY.

I know that there are quite many tools with similar idea, here are features that I believe make ours one better:

1. Sending report to email daily. Save a lot of time, I believe. Every morning you will get report about your sites position on your e-mail. No need to run anything.

2. Work with Russian and Ukrainian search engines. Will be useful for people who works on that market.
