Simple Article Publisher - Automated Script

Hits: 3,634

Description: Simple Article Publisher (SAP) is a feature compacted script which allows you to display your articles in a professional organised manner. Your articles will never be cluttered all over the website. Never again will you have to manually edit the pages when you want to enter one more article in your website. Our Dynamic solution will meet all your needs. Simply write, upload and click the Save Now button. 3 easy steps to follow! Simple Article Publisher will organise your articles on the front page automatically, thus removing the need to manually place the links on the frontpage. The fully featured administrator's panel lets your control every single detail of the website, down from design to comment tags. You don't need a website. This will work perfect as a stand alone site. Just add your articles and it will create a main page for you!
