Description: Seller Elite is an unique PayPal button generator which will send text messages to your cellphone everytime you make a sale. This option can be configured in a different way, and you can setup Seller Elite to send to your cell phone daily earnings stats from PayPal sales. It will also protect your buy now button, the download links, and will organise your customers list. If you want you can email your customers when you have something to tell them, and supports multiple products. Easy to install, Seller Elite will protect your digital products and setup a buy now button in 5 seconds. The download link will be masked by a temporary link which expires after a certain time period (selectable). Seller Elite doesn't need you to make any changes into your PayPal account.

Seller Elite is so easy to use, I had no problems setting a secure paypal "Buy Now" button. I don't think it took more than 20 seconds to do it, and everything is handled by the script, including the download delivery, product hackers protection, and invoice creation.

A highly recommended product for digital products sellers.
