What a wonderful top of the line script. It has all the same features as myspace and mypartypals.com

The support is super fast, well within my timeframe. They do respond very fast, I really love the layout and admin panel area is reall easy to navigate around.

A+++++++ for this one.

This guy likes to say that anyone posting a negative comment is a "competitor" trying to make him look bad, but I assure you, I am simply an angry customer. This has to be the worst coding I've ever seen. It is not secure, and it will bog down your server. But rather than just taking my word for it, here's a public discussion:

If you do a search of the following forum you will see that this guy is ripping off Americans because they don't like the war in Iraq. After you buy the software, and ask for any help - they contact your ISP and tell them you did not pay. Just go to the forum below and get all the news.

They don't offer any support forum anymore, due to all of the bad service. Just be smart and go with any other social networking script.
