JobSite Professional v2.0

Hits: 15,356

Description: New version 2.0 released - multiple new functionalities and improvements available. JobSite Professional is a powerful and easy customizable PHP & MySQL product for running professional job websites which are guaranteed to stand out from the competition. It comes with the php sources, not encrypted, which makes possible to make modifications in them or add additional functionalities if this is necessary.

JobSite Professional has plenty of features for the job seekers, employers and administrators. It is template based and can be run with various templates (multiple demos are available on our website). The front site is empowered also by WebSiteAdmin and can be combined with all the modules (like Intranet, News, Links Manager, Document Manager, FAQ Manager, Photo Albums, Newsletter and others) and products of the WebSiteAdmin family (Blog System, Real Estate Portal, Car Portal, Vlog System, Pharmacy System, Vlog System and others). Multiple demos are available on our website.

I would recommend this product to anyone. The support is quite fast and helpful, these guys made the installation for me, provided me a few translations of the language file and helped me with my template customization - all of them at no additional cost! Thank you for the wonderful service!

Good product, fast support, Aug 1st, 2007

I was looking for a job script for more than a month and finally took a decision to get this one. So far I am very happy with my choice, I think it has good and easy to use interface. Also I like the system for charging the employers and other functionalities. And (until now) the support has been quite fast and helpful, thank you for the good service.

The admin panel has so many functionalities that sometimes it's not easy to understand. Otherwise I am using this script for more than 6 months and it's running smoothly and no problems at all and I am really satisfied with the support - very fast and helpful. Also there are a lot of new cool features added in the latest version 2.0.

I could highly recommend this script to anyone who wishes to launch fast a good job portal.

Very good script, Feb 4th, 2008

I found this script to be the best choice to run a multi language jobs board - using it for almost 2 months and no problems at all so far. The support is fast and professional, a lot of personal attention. Also I appreciated that the company offers some extra services like installation, small customizations and others without charging for that!

Great Support, Feb 17th, 2008

I just purchased Jobsite Professional so I cannot comment yet on the program's performance. I can say that support has been excellent. Questions have been answered promptly - even on the weekend!

Others are saying how great the script is. It might be...but I cannot get anyone to answer presale questions. I did get one answer, but no more with follow up questions. I am ready to spend, but I guess my money isn't green enough.
