(A)lone Popup Box

Hits: 3,158

Description: Popup window replacement (a box will be shown on the page when visitor clicks a hyperlink). It will display contents of a separate HTML from your server. Only one box will be shown at the same time. Can be used to show supplementary information such as author biography, page history or a sitemap. Will not be blocked by browsers. Gracefully degrades if the browser has Javascript turned off or DOM is not supported.
