Postmagik

Hits: 2,570

Description: Postmagik is the CMS that powers the Backslash website. It comes with an easy to use installer and administration panel. It builds its own RSS/ATOM feeds everytime a change is detected in the content. You can set up genres to filter different articles. Viewers can leave comments on articles which can easily be edited/deleted by admins. It also supports plugins and language packs (comes with English and Spanish).
