An awesome real estate classified software, Oct 24th, 2006

Reviewed By: carolinesmith2006

As a web designer, it is programming skills that I am lacking a lot. Well, I finally found this software to be an awesome help for me. I like the way that it can accept payments from various sellers, and most importantly, I like how the Approval Center works. My client loves it a lot. This is a nice script. I would recommend it to everyone. Thanks!

Awesome Real Estate Management Software, Mar 18th, 2007

As a realtor in Nevada, I found this software really amazing! I found out how easy it is to show all of my property listings to all prospective clients. I really like the way it auto-resize my pictures. It only took me one week to show all of my listings on the website. A great software for all! Best, Jason from Nevada

Extreme Caution, Dec 15th, 2007

The script has poor coding issues including an encrypted file whereby you are unaware of what you are installing on your server. The author fails to response to questions raised concerning the encrypted file and the product fails to function unless installed by the author. I would suggest potential buyers' proceeds with extreme caution. We removed the script from our server as we'd rather be safe than compromised.

Works for Me!, Jan 29th, 2008

I'm running a FSBO site with this script, and it's great. I DID NOT get (or want) any help from the owner in installing this script, it installed just fine on my servers.

I had a small issue and requested help via email, the owner explained the feature within a reasonable amount of time.

I am quite pleased with the performance and look of the site. I detected no nefarious activity or encrypted files.

This software is highly recommended by me.

Stay Away from this company, Feb 22nd, 2008

I purchased this program, spent 100's of dollars on custom programming and when it came to needing particular code, Ignatius refused to provide it. First he said he would, then he changed his mind. Even though their license says they will provide this to you. They are VERY slow in responding and have cost me more than I can say. This has been a nightmare. I have the emails to show what they have said, and how long they take to respond.

Appears to be a great script, but the installation instructions were very lacking. The program includes no Read Me file or helpful instructions to modify the script
