Bad after sales support, Jul 20th, 2007

Great pre-sales support but poor post-sales support.

This script is still buggy, and even after pointing out some serious bugs via the Support Ticket system - I've seen no patches or updates released.

They offer a "Unique Design" for which you've to keep waiting forever! They don't bother to keep the customer updated.

I reckon you put your money somewhere else.

Hi!

I usually do not leave reviews, but I saw the bad one here and could not pass by without speaking out. The software (I bought on the 3d of July) turned out to be absolutely bug-free. I also thought that there were problems about it, but then they just set up everything and it worked (I had issues with video chat IP). The support is also ok, they always called me back, Gary was very polite with me as well as Dmitry and the others. Now I am strating to get members. Thanks to ABK-Soft!

cool software! Customer service can make me wait for several hours, but they make all corrections and setting up. So no problems at all. AbleDating is the system I will use with all my old 12 sites.

Well I bought this software and before that I contacted 4 people from this site
<http://www.abledatingreview.com/>

They gave me a very good reference of this software, one of them even by the phone. Now I understand that I was right buying this AbleSpace script, because I have never seen anything come close to it. Thank you ABK-Soft and try to hold to this creative air!

Firstly, the support is good presale and then non-existent and very poor and rude. Secondly they claim any bad reviews are from competitors.

Thirdly, they offer a 30 day money back guarantee and yet they do not want to refund us (thank god we paid by CC)

Forthly, if you think you can pay $597 for a single license and get unlimited video chat, upload videos, chat rooms, emails, etc then think twice. Ask for refund like stated on website never received total scam
