hostfil.es - free instant file hosting, no registration

Hits: 756

Description: Great free file hosting, unlimited number uploads with no registration required and no filetype limits. Completely no registration so that you can upload instantly and you will receive both a download link and a delete link. Having problems remembering your links or sending them out to people? we can automatically send your link up to up to 1000 people. You can upload any file you want to share with all your friends. We also support password protection if you wish to protect your files, and not only that we pay you if your file receives over 1000 downloads!
