this site is constantly changing name, server and price. The scripts are absolutely not secure.

The directory script was hacked in 5 seconds. Nothing is escaped so it took me a while to make the script somewhat secure.

All the scripts have been made by a company (years ago) they do not own.

Templates are ripped from a chinese company. So what you buy from them is stolen scripts that are unsecure and risky at best.

Dont fall for it as I have. Its a rip off. there is no support.
