SwiftTraction - Time Management Software with Reporting & Integration

Hits: 182

Description: A web-based time management and tracking application with full, detailed reporting capabilities. An intuitive interface makes it simple to manage your current set of projects and tasks. Users can clock in or clock out of any task with a single click, or manually enter start and stop times just as easily. Includes a hassle-free Windows desktop app, full integration with SupportTrio ticketing software, and an API for use with your own applications and web sites.
