I purchased this script, and had a lot of problems. Easysearchdirectory support is next to nothing. They are unwilling to give support, do not answer emails and when they do, their arrogant stance leaves you empty handed. The script is heavily codelocked, so fixing it yourself is impossible. I might as well have thrown my money on the street for this worthless piece of crap!!!

I purchased EasySearchDirectory to replace my old-fashioned directory site 1 week ago, and then I got difficulties in setting up the mysql database. I then contacted the support team, and their response was really nice! Ignatius of EasySearchDirectory Team helped me with the install quickly and in just 3 hours everything was working fine! It's a great product! Best regards from John Smith in California!

I recently purchased this script and from the instructions on their website it appears easy to set up. After a few attempts I contacted their support, who installed it for me, however it didn't totally work. Seemed to be missing tables in the database. I contacted them almost a week ago again, but not getting any reply. I have tried to reinstall the entire script, but now my unlock code will no longer work. Hopefully I hear back soon or I will be very disappointed. I will post the outcome.

On installing, this script produced php errors in the encrypted code. We contacted support, but slow responses (1-3 days), and not helpful! I asked for possible causes/resolutions, all we got is that the "server is wrongly configured," and pushing to use their hosting provider, but never anything helpful in getting the script to work. After @10 days, we gave up, asked for a refund, but was refused without any reason for the scripts failure. He took the money and refused to support the product.

The Language Conversion on the admin panel makes it really easy for me to translate the software to Greeks. And it is really easy to make layout modifications for the public pages! Thanks a lot, Nancy - California Design

I don't like to leave bad reviews for a product but I am getting no where fast with support for this product. Easysearchdirectory was purchased and installed however the hosting company does not like using 'localhost' for emails which by default easysearchdirectory uses (many hosts also have this restriction) Should be a simple case of changing a couple of files. Have been trying to sort this out for a week and have requested a support telephone number but as of yet still not working...
