After paying by Paypal you have to wait the next day for someone to send it to you in an email which will likely end up in your "Bulk" or "Spam" folder. When you unzip the files you see bunch of folders and directories and one tiny INSTALL.txt file which has about 5 lines worth of information. You try installing this script & would think it would work...WRONG! Support is even more terrible!! They provide no clear installation instructions if you are on a shared host!! STAY AWAY!
