MCshoutbox

Hits: 686

Description: A small shoutbox that can be placed anywhere in your web pages. It's been written in php 5 and uses a MySQL database. It features an installer that will do all the installing job, including making tables for the database. A control panel to administer all your shouts by page and to add/delete smilies, though the installer puts 9 smilies in the database for start. All for free. C'mon Download it now.
