Building Feedback Form with php

Hits: 818

Description: Here we are going to create a feedback form for you site to allow users contact you.

The script is very simple and this article is for php beginners. we have to follow following steps for that.

Design a Feedback Form

The first thing we need to do is to design the feedback form. following piece code will build a form for you. here i am going to save it in html file say, feedback.html
