The best online tutorials for beginners using Flash., Feb 5th, 2001

Reviewed By: BDeBoard

After recently visiting Actionscripts.org. I used their tutorials to help me with a few things. They had every tutorial on the Flash software that I would ever need! They supply you with beginner tutorials all the way up to advanced tutorials. I highly recommend this site for users in need of help with the Flash program. I know how complicated Flash can be to use. Actionscripts.org is the best place to go for help with Flash.

All I have to say to Actionscripts.org is keep up the good work.
