Network Counter

Hits: 3,696

Description: This script allows you to get an accurate count of traffic on your whole network. If you have one site, you can have this script tell you how much traffic you are getting on each page in real time. You can put it on a network of sites and find out how much traffic you have on the whole network. It uses cookies and is not a hit counter. Web based stats page will tell you how many unique hits you have on each site and how many hits on each site came from one of your other sites.
